

Welcome home! Join us where children find their future both for this life and eternity. Discover how boys and girls from all walks of life pursue their dreams of becoming preachers, artists, counselors, helicopter pilots, accountants, fathers and mothers. Believing each child is a gift from God, learn how they develop their faith, inspire their hopes and protect their dreams. This Children's Home site is undergoing construction, so please check back from time to time to see the great changes coming soon.
